.. NOVEMBER 5, 1858. Reading Matter on every page.

The Illinois Election. A special telegraphic dispatch from St. Louis, nforms us that the Democrats have 40 members of the House of Representitives, against 35 Black Republicans. This being true, there can be but little doubt of the return of Douglas to the U.S. Senate. The Illinois Legislature meets on the second Monday in January, and soon thereafter, the vexed question will be settled. Lincoln may as well make up his mind to stay at home for the present. There will be no use for him in the thirty-sixth Congress. We don't know how much use there will be for Douglas.

Yesterday the order of Odd Fellows' illustrated its capacity, both in numbers and respectability. The occassion of the session of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, afforded a proper opportunity for the display of the strength of the fraternity in the State. There were hundreds of noble gentlemen present at the sessions of the lodge. There were undreds of other persons who heartily sympathized in the objects and actions of the meeting. The grand parade commenced at nine o'clock, starting from the Odd Fellows' Hall. The procession paraded the chief streets of the city, and throughout the line of march was received with the most gratifying attention from the populace. There were over twelve hundred in the line, representing all degrees, classes, and conditions of

The banquet, at the Mechanics Institute, was truly magnificent. It was thoroughly appropriate. Mr. C. C. Spencer, the Grand Marshal, displayed his true efficiency, and the Grand Treasurer, (Geo. Brobstou) showed that he was a treasure indeed.

ONE OF THE OLD FELLOWS .- Mr. John Moore, living in the north part of Logan county, will be 105 years of age uext spring. Last spring a year ago he walked twelve miles at one time, without ecceiving any injury thereby. He has walked from his residence in Logan county to Campbell county, Virglnia, and back, seven times in his ifc. He is now in fine health and is able to work, but his eyesight is bad.

In another neighborhood in that county, there are four ladics who are each upwards of 90 years f age, in good health and very sprightly. THEATER-BENEFIT OF MR. ANDERSON. -- We were glad to see last night, that Mr. Anderson was complimented with a full house, for his merit deserves nothing less. Without doubt, he is among the best actors who has ever trod the Louisville stage. In his benefit, which occurs to-night, he ppears in the "Elder Brother," and as Duke Aranza in the "Honey Moon." Mr. Anderson will, we are sure, be greeted with an overflowing

Big Dog Figur. -- On Wednesday the "fancy" in the vicinity of Butchertown were entertained with a big dog fight, a regular match fight lor $250 a side. The match was between a "42 pound" yellow dog, the property of Haskins, we believe, of New Orleans, and a "50 pound" dog, the property of Bell, of this city. It was a "scratch fight," in a ring, and won very easily, we are told, by the light reight yellow dog from New Orleans.

DANCING CLASS IN NEW ALBANY .- Mr. G. H, Silbert, late of the Louisville Theater, has opened a dancing class in New Albany. He introduces the exercises at the American Hall at 7 o'clock P. John Mitchell, of Lexingion, preached the sermon and onducted the whole service, the pastor, Rev. Charles Lee, being too ill to be present. The house was filled to the utmost capacity, and the services

The Directors of the South-western Agricultural Association meet to-morrow morning at The N. Y. Post, of Monday afternoon, reords a heartrending circumstance as follows:

Mademolselle Piccolomini this morning met with a serious loss as she was returning from early mass, at the Twenty-eighth street Church. It appears that she either dropped, or was rob-bed of a beautiful chatelaine and watch set with diamonds, and valued at $500. As the watch was a present, she is very anxious to recover it, and diamonds, and valued at $500. Texas a Good Place for Children. George Kendall writes to the New Orleans icayune from his home in Texas:

In all my journeyings, both in the old world and the new, I have never seen children so universally healthy as in this region. Here I will men-tion one sight which came under my own eyes and inspection. I started about sundown, one evening in August last, for San Antonio, a full moon and pleasant breeze rendering it more pleasant, both or man and beast, to travel at night than in dayfor man and beast, to travel at night than in daytime. About one o'clock in the morning I reached a house this side of the Salado, the occupant a German. I saw that the grass in Iront of his house was good. I knew that nt that time in the morning I should find a cross and sleepy boy at the stable in San Antonio to take charge of my horse, and a half awake porter at the hotel to show me aroom. The German meanwhile promised to bring me out a fresh shuck matres and close ring me out a fresh shuck matress and clean heets, and give me a cup of coffee at daylight in he morning, and upon these assurances I took up my quarters in the open road on the shady side of my wagon. Before lying down I noticed a species of tableau vivant over the lence, in the ont yard, which one does not often see out of doors in the open air, and at one o'clock at night tratched upon a matress without covering, the full, round moon shining down upon their fuller. rounder faces, were five, chubby children, all fast asleep, and looking as cozy and as comfortable as possible. On rising in the morning, from a refreshg sleep, near the wagon, I saw that the childr were already stirring, and that so far as health was concerned they were rude specineus.—
"You have fine, hearty children," said I. "Yes, Texas is a good country for children," respouded the father. "Always well?" I queried. "Always; we had five children in Germany, and lost them all; we have had five since we came to Texas, and there they are." One of them, in particular, I noticed. He was a palpable specimen of the Teuonic genius, apparently between five and six teeth. he was standing immediately behind a buge slice of breadand butter, and was struggling his way through it with an appetite which made ample amends tor his loss of teeth. Desperate Encounter with a Burglar at Clyde House Robbed and the Man Dangerously Wounded by the Burglar !- Great Excitement We learn by gentlemen who came from Clyde Wayne county, in the train this morning, that the village was in a state of great excitement in con-

pon the owner of the house robbed. Some time this morning, before daybreak, the ouse of Win. C. Ely, a well known citizen of Clyde, was entered by one or more burglars and robbed of a quantity of silver plate. About four o'clock Mr. Ely woke and saw a man standing by his bedside. He sprang from the bed and boldly grappled with the fellow. Ely stripped the coat from the villain, but the scoundred drew a kuife and stabbed Mr. Ely in several places. With this weapon he got the ad-vautage and made good his escape from the the burgiar, but did not succeed in using it. His own revolver was lying upon the table in the room ready lor use. Mrs. Ely was awakened by the noise and ran ont to give the alarm, while her husbaud was engaged with the robber. Mr. Ely received eleven wounds from the knife of the scoundrel, and some of them are dangerous. Three physicians were in attendance up when our informant left, and the result of his case was a matter of doubt.—Rochaster Union. The Bourben Circuit Court adjoined Saturday evening last. BISHOP SPALDING-THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS AND THE DEMOCRACY.

Editors Louisville Courier: - Having noticed with some interest a series of articles in the Courier, by Bishop Spalding, on the public schools, together with various editorials in the Conrier, Democrat, and Journal, all indicating a possible re-opening of the public school question, as a political issue between the Democratic and the American parties, I beg leave to offer a few anggestions on the same general subject, contemplating it from the Democratic stand-point, and going to show the nexpediency of admitting among our party issues the question of interference with the public schools as now established amongst ns.

With a view to the least possible trespass upon our space, I shall aim to exhibit, in the briefest form, plain facts and principles, leaving it to the intelligence of the more thoughtful class of your readers, whom I have chiefly in view, to develope for themselves these suggestive hints and make their own application of them.

In the first place, there is no call upon the Democratic party to make any such issue-nor any obligation to take up this quarrel between different classes of our citizens. It is true, indeed, that our Roman Catholic fellow citizens have very generally supported the Democratic party. It is, lowever, fair to presume that this support has een rendered simply from the conviction that the Democratic party was right. Indeed it would be inconsistent with the very genins of the Deocracy to ask support on any other ground .t would be equally a reflection npon our Roman Catholic fellow citizens, to suppose that they had rendered their services in expectation of some quid pro quo, rather than from a conviction of the rectitude of the political principles of the Demo-

As there is thus no obligation to make this isome, so in the second place, every consideration of prudence forbids it. It is well known that among all the causes which first gave Know Nothingism is hold on the popular heart, to the immiuent langer of the Democratic, and to the utter overlanger of the White party. the Democratic, and to the utter over-throw of the Whig party, none was more potent than the alarm of the people at the hostility of the Roman Catholics to the public schools, and the consequent popular suspiciou that one or the other of the great political parties might be disposed, in consideration of their support, to aid them in the overthrow of the school system. And even if the overthrow of the school system. And even if it were granted that the Democratic party has been laid under special obligation to our Roman Catabolies for their steady support, it would be equally true that the party has abundantly discharged the obligation by the support it has rendered them, uturn arguing the properties are not also because of the support it has rendered them, uturn arguing the properties are not also support in the second turn, against the proscriptive spirit of Know othing ism, and that at no small cost and danger its political prospects. It is asking too much, expect that now, so soon as the power and innumber of the party have been fairly re-estab-ished, we should assume a mere incidental issue which experience has shown to be so hazardous a any party whose success rests upon the popular palding, with the present public school system, sone which, if adopted by the Democratic party, must inevitably divide it into at least three hostendards and angry sections. For though the theory I Bishop Spalding, and that of the editor of the bemocrat agree in the single point of excluding on Bible from the public schools, yet in every ther point, the difference between them is radical und irreconcilable. The one alter each single is the single point of excluding the contract of the single point of excluding the point. nd irreconcilable. The one, after excluding the suble, would introduce the ecclesiastical teachings freligion—the other, no religion at all. While third party, equally conscientions with Bishop pulding against schools without religion, and junily averse to ecclesiasticism in the schools, ith the editor of the Democrat, will bitterly ary themselves against the ecclesiasticism of the ie, and the rationalism of the other. There can ano doubt that to-day as many intelligent Denrats can be found, whose conscientions convic-ons are as strong against public scoods, without w Bible, as are to be found concurring in Bishop Protestant Bible. Suppose then, that under democratic auspices, the present school system is the present school give shape and life to the new Democratic sys-cu? A radical and irreconcilable division must evitably follow; and thus a victory to the party such an issue would work its rnin

In the fourth place, were there no dauger, either of arousing an irresistible opposition from without, or of crenting a fatal schism in the party itself, the issue itself is one which can never carry the popular heart. If indeed, a clear case oppression-especially of violence-to honest and I must be allowed to sav, however, that make it, in any such practical and tangible shape, as is level to the popular apprehension and actual enough to excite the popular heart. Scruples of conscience on such grounds as he presents, must seem to the mass of the people to be theoretic scruples of conscience only, the result of finely drawn reasoning and nicely balanced logic, as of one who is laboring to produce in himself scruples of conscience. No strong, earnest, sympathetic zeal, such as alone can give a political party success can be aroused among the people in behalf of a conscience thus laboring. Thus, for instance, the seruther is purely theoretical, or the real ground of the scruple and the opposition to the school is the other than the ostensible ground. It is manesdy impossible to arouse the popular mind on a issue of oppression of conscience made upon ach grounds as these, and to be defended against ac scofts and jeers and siftings of astute politihe softs and jeers and sittings of astute pointi-ians in an excited canvass.

In the fifth place not only does such an issue sil, negatively, to excite the popular sympathy, out it involves positive principles which assail frectly fundamental ideas of the American pop-lar creed; and in so far, must involve a support ular creed; and in so far, must involve a support ou the part of the Democracy, of measures directly antagonistic to its theoretic faith. With all deference to the learning and acuteness of Bishop Spalding, I must be allowed to express the opinion, that his very analogies and comparisons between the American and Austrian systems of public education, indicate a failure as yet, even ou his part, to apprehend clearly the wide and rudical distance between the American and the European idea of the relation of the State to public education growing out of the peculiar American idea of the relation of the State to the Church and to the family. Whether the popular mind here can or cannot give distinct articulate utterance to the fundamental truths which constitute its creed, the fundamental truths which constitute its creed, it is manifest that these are among its general impressions on this whole subject:

Impressions on this whole subject:

1. That the Bible is the fundamental law of our civilization—not only the organon of our religion—out also of our social structure.

2. That on this ground of the double aspect of the Bible, and its two-fold relation to our civilization, it should be at the foundation, as well of our secular and civil, as of our religious advention. secular and civil, as of our religious education. 3. That the State therefore, S. That the State therefore, thought awing no function to teach religion, may properly cause the Bible to be taught in schools provided by the State, on the ground simply that it contains the ethical code necessary to constitute a good citizen.

4. That therefore the use of the Bible in the chical of the State does not recessarily involved. the teaching of religion by authority of the State, except in the broad sense in which religion, as an ethical precept, is essential to the citizen of a civlized society.

Such are some of the truths which enter as elements into the popular American idea of the relation of the Bible to our social and civil instituions. Now, on the other great point involved a this question of public education, namely, the ight of control in education, these may be rethe family institution to educate mankind for their ent by express invitation.

nder pressure of conscience, withdrawing their hildren from the public schools, the appeal to the under pressure of conscience, withdrawing their children from the public schools, the appeal to the Democracy might he, out with the fact notorious that this movement is not spontaneous with the Roman Catholic family, but suggested and even enforced by the church, and that, therefore, this plea of conscience for the rights of the family, as against the church, originates with the church, and that church represented by men who have no family, of all other men the last who have any right to plead it, this presents altogether another aspect of the question to the American people.

Thus, in every aspect of the case, whether as a question of party obligation, of political prudence in reference to opposition from without, or internal divisions; as a question of policy in reference to the popular will, or of high organic principle, it seems to me that the taking up of any such issue by the Democratic party, is folly little short of suicide.

A Puzzle for Underwriters and Lawvers. his manufacturing establishment. He afterwards erected an ell to the main building, and then insured both buildings together. Both buildings were injured by fire, and there arose a question as to the proper mode of adjustment. It was conteuded for the underwriter on the main huilding, he would he responding for a loss on the ell, which his policy did not cover. So the circuit court de cided; but the court of appeals reversed the decision, directing that the loss on the ell should be adjusted and subtracted from the sum insured on on the main building.

years, attests the importance of arriving at a right solution of the question presented. To that end, the views of such as may feel interested, are solicited. As a beginning, we offer our own . We are aware it is held by a court of high authority, that where the subjects insured are not the same, there is no contribution; but this has See Howard Ins. Co. es. Scribner, 5 Hill, 298; 1 Phillips on Ins. 204; Lincoln vs. Boston Mut. Fire Ins. Co. 9 Met. 205. Assuming as the true dectrine that contribution is required, what is the proper mode of adjustment 9 To show the incorectness of that adopted by the Court of Appeals we have only to suppose a case: Let there he a srparate insurance of $7000 on the main building. $3000 on the eil, and $5000 on both buildings to. gether, and a loss of $4000 on the main building, and $2000 on the ell. A correct adjustment of these losses under the mode suggested by the Court of Appeals, is impossible. In the applica. tion of that mode, we have different results accordingly as we begin on the main building or

ell. By beginning on the main building, there is payable on the main building, from $7000 the sum of $2,383 83, and from $5000 the sum of $1.666 66 and there is payable on the ell-from $5000 the sum of $1,032 63, and from $3000 the sum of $347 87. By beginning on the ell, there is paya. ble on the main building -from $7000 the sum of $2,604 64, and from $5000 the sum of $1,895 26; and there is payable on the ell-from $5000 the sum of $1,250, and from $3000 the sum of $750. It is thus seen il.at there are two applications of the mode of adjustment suggested by the Court of Appeals with different results, as follows: 1. $7,000 pays $2,839 $3, $5,000 pays $2,719 29 and $3,0 w pays $947 .7 2. $7,000 pers $2,504 (4. $5.00) intrs $2.645.26 and $3,000 pays $750 00.

This showing of results, it is contended, fully confutes the mode of adjustment suggested by our Court of Appeals, as no one will contend that the underwriter on both buildings can throw a greater loss ou either of the others as his option or interest may dictate.

It seems to us that the underwriter on the mai building should pay seven-twelfths of the los on that building, and the underwriter on both buildings should pay five twelfths, and the undeswriter on the ell should pay three-eighths of the loss on that building, and the underwriter ou both buildings should pay five-eighths. Of course the whole sum to be paid by the underwriter on both buildings is not to exceed the whole sum insured by him. If this should not make good to the insured his whole loss, he cannot complain, since his loss read arises from being his own underwriter to that extent. He has entered into solemn contracts, expressing the hability of the several underwriters, and must stand by their terms. The same remark applies to the underwriter on both buildings. A contest might arise between the separate underwriters as to the division of the sum to be paid by the underwriter on the two buildings; but that must be settled according to the rights and equities of particular cases, and constitutes no valid objection to onr mode of adjustment.

Early Legislation Precedents.

We regard publicity in Legislative debates as so much a matter of course that we can scarcely realize a time when any contrary practice existed Yet in other countries, where legislative debates are held, the practice has been the other way, and even the Senate of the United States for over five years, always sor with closed doors. During the dministration of Washington and Adams the annual messages of the President were delivered in person as inaugurals now are. Mr. Jefferson introduced the present custom of transmitting these annual messages by the hands of his private Secretary to both Houses.

One other carious fact is, the United States had no standing committees until 1916. Even the House of Representatives had no standing committees for ten years after the origin of Congress. Now neither branch is considered as fully organized until these standing committees are appoint ed; yet one House existed ten and the other twenty-seven years without any such committees.

During a portion, at least, of Gen. Washing. ton's administration he met in person with the Senate to make executive nominations, and also growing rather late in the season. to consider treaties with foreign nations and In. dian tribes. The practice has long since fallen into disuse. All treaties are negotiated by the Executive and communicated for approval to the Senate, and all nominations are transmitted in

The first time the doors of the Senate wer opened for public discussion was on the contest es to the right of Albert Gallatin, elected by the Penn Legislature to a seat in the Senate. This seat was contested on the ground that Mr. Gallatin had not been, as the Constitution required, nine years a citizen of the United States. The persons con. incting the contest of Mr. G.'s seat were heard by an attorney and also a member of their Senate on his behalf, and on the last day of February 794, Mr. G. was ousted of his seat in the Senate' Ahout the same time a resolution was adopted de claring that after the close of that session the doors of the Senate should be opened while in Legislative debate. The Senate still adhers to closed doors while engaged in what is called Ex-

Our taxes, as they now stand, are $1 05 advaorem on each one hundred dollar's worth of property, 20 cents more for railroad purposes, 10 cents more for gas, and 10 ceuts more for water. THIS LAMP burns with a pure white brilliant light equal to gas, and is much cheaper than gas. The Luar Light took the first premium at the last Mechanics' Fair in Lonisville. One dollar's worth of Luar Oil gives the light of $8 16 of Lard Oil, $4 36 of Whale Oil, $9.4 of Burning Fluid, $14 26 of Candles. Half a pint burns 15 hours, costing about 5% cents, giving a light equal to 5 or 6 star candles. Lunar Oil is not explosive, has no disagreeable smell, and is not liable to smoke. NUNNS & CLARK'S Improved New Scale Planos are so well and favorably known in this market, and throughout the whole country, to be SUPERIOS in touch, tone, and durability, and they speak so well for themselves, that they need no word of commendation from any one.

HAINES BROTHERS' PIANOS

are new Planos in this market, but they are well known in many sections of the country as an A No. I instrument. Competent judges who have tried them pronounce them fully equal, if not superior, to the Steinway & Son's Pianos. They are a heautiful, highly finished instrument, and we can sell them at three-fourths the price of a Chickering Plano, as we do not have to pay anything for their name or reputation. We still keep a full supply of the New and Improved Scale of Chickering & Son's Grand, Paulor Grand, and Square Planos, and as we are Cosh Dealers in them, we can sell them unsually low for cash. We have also several other makes of Planos, all of which we warrant to give perfect satisfaction. We respectfully invite strangers visiting the city during the Fair, and all others in want of Planos, to call and examine our complete stock, for we are selling exceedingly low for cash. BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS (SUCCESSOR TO EVARTS & MURTON,)

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT,

FEVER AND AGUE, And all the various affections consequent upon a diseased STOMACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Cos-tiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. Weakness of any kind, Eheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berliave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatheriand scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have heen impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instautaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has in-duced many lmitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything eise until you have given Berhave's Holiand Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely supefor it is to all these imitations.

It is no new and unried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trisl before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparation extent. The testinacy in its favor given by the most prominent and well-known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a coreful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

THE RIVER, yesterday, was falling slowly at the head of the fails, and by dispatches it appears that it is also falling at Cincinnati In the canal, last evening, there were four feet three inches water, with exceedingly bad, cloudy, cool weather, and several attempts to rain, during the day. At Pittsburgh, vesterday aftermoon, the river swelling, as we learn by a special dispatch to the captain of the Hazel Dell, with thirty inches water in the channel, and a prospect of more water.

The Hazel Dell arrived from Cairo, and is advertised for Pittsburgh, by which it would appear that the captain has faith in the prospects in that quarter. By special distances from Nashville, yesterday, we team that the Cumberland river was falling with only eighteen inches water on

The star packet John Gault has been withdrawn from the Cairo trade, and will be laid up a while, as the river is rather too high for her, and freights rather too low to make the Cairo line profitable just now. Capt. Bunce will probably bring her through the canal and load for Nashville.

The Missisippi river at St. Louis, has risen, all together, ten feet, with a rise in all the tributaries, including the Idinois. This will make a good stage of water in the lower Mississippi, and the chances of reasing the H. D. Newcomb, sunk at island $1 are very precarious, if not hopeless— The bell boat company, however, have hopes, and ere still at work on her.

The Telegraph No. 3, did not start out for Cin-cumust in the mail line as anticipated, owing to the unfavorable reports of the water. The river did not rise enough for her, and the little Kentucky remains on the track.

The following items we copy from the Cinneti Commercial, of yesterday:

The ptiots belonging to the Association recently organized here, are demanding $300 to take a boat to New briesas, and $500 for the round trip. We understand, however, that the Wan. Baird westerday secured her picks at $4 for the r und trip.

A letter fr in Fort Smith, dated the 25th uits, reports easy rains, with prospects of a rise in Arkansas river.

A' Parkersburg, Wednesday evening, benow Wheeling, there were five feet water in the channel, and i e river rising. The rise was supposed to be from the Little Kanawha. The Kan wha river was also reported rising.

The Ohio No 2, from Marietta, arrived at Cin mati Wednesday, and reports 3 feet on Blennerhassett. When the Ohio passed the mouth of Kunawha, there was a report of a rise in that stream, which is no doubt correct, as the rains have extended through that region. The Ohio met the Courier aground on Blanney, Swallow at Bellville, Baltimore and Rochester at Swan's Bar, passed Liberty at Bufflington, rubbing over.

THE MARTHA PUTNAM - CARGO ABANDONED. - The catha Putnam, which had a hole knocked in her bottom on the rocks at Eliawnectown, mention which was made in the Courier, arrived here yes terday on ler way to Madison or Cincinnati. Sh the not make much of a stop, and did not have her freight on board. She started from Cairo with the freight of the Fanny Bullitt, including a considerable quantity of suger for merchants in this city, a portion of which was slightly damag-ed. She discharged the carge on the shore at or near Slavnee n. and there it remains.

CREEN RIVER ROWS -Pr a letter from a core learn that there has been three days rain along her river, and the river had risen two feet in a her rising, making it naviatte for secondocate. The dams are all in good tenarr, and no obstructions at any of the locks. The Harrison Bridges, Capt. C. A. Everhart, aving been detained, starts to Bowling Green this evening. She is in fine order, with the neatst cabin ever seen in the Green river trade. Business at New Orleans, despite the ep de nic, has thus far, this season, far exceeded that of the former, with receipts of 55,228 bales of cotton for the week cuding Saturday last. The arrivals consisted of ten boats from St. Louis and m Cai o. There was not an arrival from ar Camberland, Ohio, Arkansas, Ten-Quachita, and Eve from R driver. The Missis appi had been rising for four days, and stood 12 feet 7 inches below high water mark.

McGill promptly accepted e important trust, and started to Shawneetown on the Charles ge last evening.

The Wm Burd was supposed to have left Cincinnati Wednesday, for the South, but we have not beerd of her yet. The Judge Torrence, and Monarch, were loading at Cincinnal for New Orleans. They couldn't load very deep, as there are but four and a balf feet water on the flats, and no doubt they draw

CONSUMERS of RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirons of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the farm.

RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the lojury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.
